Leg Broken by a Car.

Knocked down by a street car at Thirteenth and F streets northwest, at 9 o'clock last night. Whitson Bfown, a thirty-eight-year-old negro, of 2 Arlington place northwest, sustained a fracture of his right leg. He was removed to the Emergency Hospital where he is now a patient. The negro, it is said, did not heed the gong, but continued walking across the track, after the motorman had received a signal to cross Thirteenth street.

CHARITY WORKERS HEAR STORIES FROM AGENTS

Division Superintendents Tell Needs of Poor People in Various Parts of City.

Spofford, 1621 Massachusetts avenue northwest, the first of a series of parlor conferences, in the interest of the work of the Associated Charities, was held on Monday evening. There were pres-ent a number of the society's solunteer workers, each of the eight divisions being represented by four of its leading

The eight division agents of the Associated Charities were cailed upon for five-minute talks, explaining the particular needs of each section of the city and the plans of work followed by each of the agents with the co-operation of her di-vision conference of volunteers. A number of very interesting stories were told, illustrating, not only the needs for prompt, generous material relief, but especially emphasizing the need of helping destitute people to help themselves.

Mrs. Kathryn E. Howells, agent of the West End Division, was the first speaker. Miss H. Ida Curry, agent for Southwest Washington, followed. Mrs. Mary C. Rugg, dean of the corps, who has had charge of the work in North-east Washington for the last ten years, was the third speaker. The other agents the northern division; Miss Zaida Udell, of the eastern division, and Mrs. Keene Busbee, agent for Georgetown. Charles F. Weller, general secretary of the Associated Charities, introduced the speakers. Miss Ida Green, general agent in charge of the division work of the association, concluded the meet ing with an earnest appeal for volunteer helpers in the division conferences and
